Sejong Global Public Administration Program

Bachelor's Degree in Global Public Administration(GPA)

The Global Public Administration major at Sejong University prepares students for managerial positions in government institutions, not-for-profit organizations, and even private companies. Students learn core skill sets such as: organization and leadership; human resource management; public and not-for-profit management; and formation and implementation of public policy. Students are also introduced to highly regarded Korean models for economic development, e-government and information technology, and government modernization.

The Sejong GPA Program:

- Offers an interdisciplinary curriculum with a strong international focus designed to cover important facets of Public Management and Policy;
- Focuses on proven practices for public policy and management developed in Korea;
- Is taught entirely in English by distinguished faculty; and
- Offers generous scholarship programs.
